Law Enforcement Agencies To Be Recognized Next Week

Governor Daniel has proclaimed next week Law Enforcement Appreciation Week, which will be climaxed by a statewide dinner at Ridglea Country Club here Oct. 10.

The governor set aside next week for recognition of all law enforcement agencies. The proclamation ceremony in Austin Tuesday was witnessed by several directors of the Texas Law Enforcement Foundation, including Fred Korth of Fort Worth.

The banquet will honor Texas Rangers and numerous special rangers that work with private industry. The governor is due to be honored guest.

Speaker for the dinner will be Gen. Charles P. Cabell, deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency in Washington.

Chill Wills of Seagoville and Hollywood will make an appearance at the dinner.

The noted character actor in Western movies was in Fort Worth Monday to discuss his part in the program. Wills was accompanied by Big John Hamilton, San Antonio actor, and Robert R. (Bob) O'Donnell, Dallas motion picture distributor.

Tickets for the $50 a plate dinner are available at Room 1065 at the Continental National Bank Building. The foundation will use proceeds to finance the organization's work in strengthening law enforcement.
